8. Complaints.

All official complaints about irregularities during the race and about the classification must be addressed to the technical jury within 30 minutes after the classification of the official report (not the previous classification). If the problem is not resolved at that time, it will pass to the Competition Committee, where it will be resolved within the four next days if it affects the result of the race. The ones that refer to possible penalties will be resolved within the next eight days.

9. Starting order.

To assign the starting order in the races of the Copa Catalana International 2023, it will be considered in this order: the UCI ranking, the general classification of the Copa Catalana International 2022 and the order of registration through the web.

10. Rules of the CRI tests.

- The approximate distance of an LRC race should be between 3 and 8 km, or a time equivalent to 5-20 minutes of running. The route may or may not coincide with the same XCO race. In any case the signalling will be specific for each race.
- The order of the exit will be reversed to the general classification of the Copa Catalana. If a participant doesn't show up at his scheduled time, he will start when the technical jury authorises it and his time will be counted from his previously assigned time. The interval between the runners will be 30". It is not allowed to use an opponents bicycle in case of a twist.
- The closing of the circuit will be effected 15' before the start.

11. Technical requirements.

- The leader of each category will have to wear the jersey provided by the organisation with a space for the team's advertising.
- The provisioning is only allowed in the labelled zones.
- Replacement material and tooling equipment will be disposed in the provided technical zones. This allows the change of material (except the bicycle frame) and technical assistance between the team members.
- The ones participating at the award ceremony must personify with the correspondent club equipment.
- Inappropriate behaviour such as unsportsmanlike actions towards other participants, the technical jury, the personal of the organisation or the environment may lead to an exclusion from the race.
- The participation at the Copa Catalana International requires the acceptance of these regulations. The same regulations are subjected to modifications, extensions and interpretations by the FCC and the organizing committee.
- The organisation has the right to modify the circuit in insurmountable situations. Likewise, all unforeseen events will be resolved by the members of the organisation together with the technical jury of the event.

12. Refund policy.

Any inscription cancellation must be done via E-Mail by info@ticktoci.net. Cancellations via telephone will not be accepted. The refund payment corresponding to the participant will be made by crediting the same card used by the registration, attending to the following conditions.

Application date before the sport event	% refund
